

Protective Factors for Strengthening Families

resilience

PARENTAL RESILIENCE

Helps you find the inner strength to bounce back from challenges, stress, and adversity.

relationships

SOCIAL CONNECTIONS

Everyone needs family, friends, and community members to provide social, emotional, and/or spiritual support. We are stronger together.

knowledge

KNOWLEDGE OF PARENTING & CHILD DEVELOPMENT

It is much easier to be the parent you want to be when you know how your child learns and grows. It helps to support challenging behavior and have realistic expectations for your child and yourself.

support

CONCRETE SUPPORT IN TIMES OF NEED

Getting the resources you need helps to reduce stress and remain strong and healthy for yourself and your children.

communication

SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL COMPETENCE OF CHILDREN

Parenting is less stressful when you know how to help your children manage their emotions, communicate their needs, and deal with conflict.
